

November 09, 2025: On Losing America to Evil

Donald & Other Evil Villains:

It looks like you all have won the world.

I am sorry to show you all that this is all that you receive as a prize.

I can hear that you are all hoping for more and more people to fight against and destroy.

There isn't anyone left.

This is what you created. This is it.

Enjoy your fallen world.

Celebrate! Yay! You all have done a wonderful thing since coming to power in 2016.

We are all truly (not) grateful.
